The Pacific Railroad and Distances from China.

From the somewhat ambitious report of the United States Land Commissioner we make the following extract

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD

The increasing desire of European Powers for ascendency in the East and other events have given on this age of steam to the Suez Canal route a most important relation to the commerce of Asia. For the last quarter of a century British commerce had sought but not realized the establishment of a route to India by way of the Euphrates and Persian Gulf. In years past the transit of travel and trade breaking bulk from Alexandria to Suez has been first by an ordinary road and now by railroad. The Ship Canal will open a complete passage for ships passing from the Mediterranean into the Red Sea to India. The existing status of that canal and terms of transit are presented in the communication herewith, dated August 20th 1867, at Paris, from M De Lesseps That communication shows that the canal at a cost of 400 000 000 francs, will be completed October 1st 1869 that it is now open from Port Said on the Mediterranean to the southern shore of Lake Temsah a distance of 52 8 miles the remainder of the canal extending 45 3 miles to Suez, not to be opened until completion of the main canal, navigation for float boats in the meantime existing through the Sweet Water Canal or channel of fresh water connecting the Nile with the Red Sea. This Republic is now a candidate for a full share of the trade of the East.

The aggregate British imports and exports from India and China for the five years ending with 1864 was £378 587 122 according to Parliamentary papers of 1865. The net British revenue from India for 1866 was £7 041 167 to which may be added indirect savings to the Anglo Indian Empire of £7 536 443 making an aggregate of £78 577 610. On the completion of our Pacific Railway and the development of our steam communication with Asia San Francisco and New York will be nearer than London to a large number of Asiatic ports, both in time and distance even with the advantage of the abbreviated Suez Canal.

Measuring from San Francisco, our superior advantage on the score of distance reaches across the Pacific and extends around the Peninsula to a point between Singapore and Penang; that, starting beyond the Philippine Islands, finding the point of equilibration with British transit somewhere between Manila and Singapore, and that as to Melbourne, the commercial metropolis of Australia, London loses in comparison with San Francisco, 1 379 miles, and in comparison with New York 779 miles. These facts must lead to important results. They indicate a probable monopoly of the carrying trade of the Pacific by American bottoms.

The completion of the Continental Railway will place New York within 20 days' and Liverpool within 35 days travel of Japan. From London to Yokohama, by the shortest eastern line via Marseilles and Suez, is a distance of 10 530 miles and 53 days' travel, while the shortest line of continuous navigation, via Gibraltar and Suez is 11,509 miles and 60 days. The travel from Japan, Russian Asiatic possessions, Philippine Islands, Eastern India, Indian Archipelago and Australia to Europe, must prefer the route by San Francisco and New York, if only on the score of economy in time. For the lighter and more costly articles of trade, the transportation of which forms but a small proportion of the price the facilities afforded by our Continental and Oceanic lines will largely supersede even the continuous navigation of the Suez Canal route, which at any time is liable to interruption by European hostilities. The rapidity of transit will, in a large number of instances, counterbalance the higher rates of railroad transportation and the double transhipment, first at San Francisco and then at New York.

With the elements of success thus imperfectly glanced at, the United States are now entering upon an imperial chapter of national prosperity. The control of the Eastern trade is at present what it was in the past, the basis of commercial ascendancy. The supremacy it conferred was seen in the splendor of the Queen of the Adriatic in mediæval days. What it has aided in accomplishing in the massive accumulations, and proud corporations of merchant princes in the commercial cities of Western Europe, what it will effect in the near future under a fully developed democratic civilization with accumulating stores of progress increased energies, and complex sets of organizations will appear in the universally diffused material prosperity and intelligence, the extent of which the experience of the past affords no adequate basis to conjecture.

Shark-Fishing in Norway.

Among the reports lately published of her Majesty's Consuls to the Foreign Office occurs a brief account, by Mr Consul General Crowe, of the shark fisheries, as at present carried on by the Norwegian fishermen along the coast. This fishery has not attracted the attention in the southern part of the country which it deserves, not from the scarcity of fish but the deficiency of appliances and absence of that experience which is considered necessary to success. A prevailing opinion exists however, that if properly prosecuted, it would become equally as lucrative in the south as it has proved to be in the north. The vessels employed in it generally range from twenty-five to thirty tons, manned with a crew of six men. They lie at anchor on the banks, with one hundred and fifty to two hundred fathoms of water, by a grappling weighing about two hundred pounds with a warp about three hundred fathoms in length, and from four to five inches in circumference. A lux perforated with holes or a canvas bag containing the residuum or refuse blubber, after the oil has been extracted by boiling is attached to the line not far from the bottom near the grappling. Globules of oil are found to ooze out or to percolate through the holes or bag and to float away in a continuous stream, serving as a decoy in a similar manner as the cod roes are applied in France, where they are thrown into the sea as ground bait to attract the sardines. Led by this stream the sharks are guided to the main bait which is attached to a thin iron chain of from one to two fathoms in length. This is fastened to a line of about the thickness of the stem of a common tobacco-pipe. At the end of the chain the hook is fastened which is usually of the size of a salmon gaff, and is baited with some kind of fish or what is preferable about a pound of sea blubber. On hooking the shark he is hauled to the surface of the water by aid of a simple purchase. Each vessel is furnished with four of these two on each side. The line, being small, is only calculated to bring him to the level of the water his nose is hauled a little above the surface, and a smart blow is immediately struck, by which he becomes stunned. A large hook at the end of a pole, attached to a strong tackle, is then driven into the fish, and by this means he is hoisted on deck. The belly is cut open, and the liver taken out, a hole is then made in the stomache for the purpose of inflating it with wind, which being done the hole is again tied up and the fish got into the water and permitted to float away. The length of these fish varies from ten to eighteen feet. The value depends upon the size, quantity, and quality of the livers which yield from one half to two barrels or fifteen to sixty gallons of fine oil each. The result of a fishery carried on in open boats depends greatly on the wind and weather. When a vessel's crew obtain from two to four barrels of liver, they are satisfied. Under favorable circumstances however, they obtain from seven to eight and if during the course of the Winter they can get from forty to fifty barrels the catch is esteemed a good one. Besides the liver when the fish can be towed to shore the flesh is converted into food for the cattle, when a scarcity of dried fish-heads, which are prepared for that purpose, arises. It is occasionally used as human food but then as "rakling," which is prepared by being cut up into long strips, and wind dried in the open air or buried in the ground until partially decomposed when it is taken up and prepared in a peculiar manner so as to become edible and fit for human food. It requires, however, says Mr Crowe, an Arctic stomach to digest it.

"Emancipation"

On this subject, which is a source of so much concern to Democratic editors the New York Tribune furnishes the World with some facts and suggestions which are clear and forcible enough to remove as one might reasonably suppose, all apprehension from the Democratic mind.

The World following in the usual track of its Democratic brethren, puts the case thus:

This question of intermarriages of Africans with persons of the white European races is most interesting and becoming every day, by reason of Republican legislation, of fearful practical importance. The fundamental idea of the Republican party, in its treatment of the Southern States is the complete equality of the white and black races. Ought such an equality be permitted to intermarriage? We shall be glad to hear from the Tribune on the moral, social, ethnological, political, legal, and practical relations of this subject. Meanwhile, Old Pope desires information from the head quarters of his party.

The Tribune, finding it vain to appeal to the World in a direct manner, proceeded to enlighten the World as follows. We beg the Democratic editor of Oregon to attend closely to the Tribune's words.

The Apostle Paul, it appears, had to decide whether certain parties had not forfeited their citizenship, reported that if they were content to live single, he advised them to do so, but if they could not, they were to marry. Our answer to the World will be found in accord with the spirit of the great Apostle.

We can imagine no circumstances under which it would seem to us fit and wise that a White and a Black person should be joined in the holy bonds of matrimony and yet we claim no right to [illegible] for others in the premises, and can [illegible] case in which the State would be justified in interfering to prevent such a marriage and [illegible] than to command it. If Democrats borrowed an "interfering" [illegible] cities each meddling, it is a worse theory than we supposed.

All do know that there are several thousand mulattoes in this country; and we [illegible] some no one has any serious doubt that the [illegible] ers of at least six tenths of them are white [illegible] orals. And we hold that those [illegible] otherwise treat workers [illegible] ter the laudable pattern of that [illegible] Vice President Richard M Johnson. [illegible] knew what were the colors of his wife's [illegible] dren; yet they didn't cost him the [illegible] single white Democrat—New York and [illegible] cut giving him their whole electoral vote. [illegible] we conclude that the Democratic [illegible] In wedlock is neither a [illegible] nor a [illegible] the World have any more?

DEATH OF DR KELLOGG—the Journalism

An "Democracy" cannot afford to tell the truth, and as misrepresentation is its only method of warfare it may naturally expect to find the Al[bany] Democrat doing its share of the congenial work. The editor is not noted for intellectual acumen but he has the principal quality required in a Democratic editor,—that is to say, he never hesitates at any kind of misrepresentation The lying of the Democrat rather surpasses, in this line, the average of the journals of its party The Democratic party is a[lso] its intelligent pa[tron] that it costs all the way from $150 000,000 to $200 000 annually to support the five million army of the South and the army under Sheridan "twenty to thirty millions are annually stolen by the Freedmen's Bureau," etc., etc. Now the Secretary of War reports that the whole cost of the army for the last "real year was $[illegible] and for the present year he thinks it may be brought under fifty millions. The Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau reports that the whole expenditures of that Bureau for the year ending on the 30th of September last were $[illegible] and that more than half this outlay was for the relief of white persons [illegible] Illinois of the lying statements which the Democratic editors seem to have thrown away all regard for veracity, and to make it their constant practice to tell falsehoods, [illegible] fact in the history of journalism or journalists

A Democratic Compliment Certain of the Democratic papers a short time ago we said that B Hay [illegible] ris and other persons, now [illegible] had gone over to that party they were not given office by P[resident] Johnson The Herald comes to their defense in the [illegible] of Thursday that these men left the Union party upon its profession of Republican principles, and left when they [illegible] that its professions were only a cloak [illegible] old Abolition Republican party was [illegible] In its [illegible] of Friday, it [illegible] to the Union, as applied to the Republican party had any signification but as a [illegible] to small simple-minded men into the [illegible] The corollary of this is a phrase which is very much [illegible] ish, is that the individuals whom he [illegible] are "simple minded men," who are "gullible" This is a stupid ad[illegible] that we don't think it true. Those men [illegible] to be duped in such a [illegible] bad not intelligence enough to stick to the Republican party when they found they could not [illegible] they had joined the party with [illegible] object. Berlah would [illegible] petition 7 fools, when it is evident that [illegible] knaves.

A Mad Dance.—The first of the spring [illegible] will take place in New Hampshire on the 4th [illegible] of March. The Democrats [illegible] efforts to elect their candidate [illegible] average from their [illegible] in the Middle and Western [illegible] The overthrow of the prohibitory law in [illegible] has inspired them with hope that they [illegible] test of battle set on the [illegible] law to book. They are therefore [illegible] to muster in Massachusetts in defeating [illegible] which made the Massachusetts [illegible] said, besides, has been a [illegible] strong town in the State from [illegible] There is a remark one do[illegible] on the part of the Republicans that [illegible] in short, earnestness, enthusiasm, [illegible] will be without a parallel [illegible] of the State

[illegible] Yet.—Vaughn's Almanac [illegible] total area of the three Pacific States and [illegible] Territories, (but including Arizona) at 315, [illegible] miles, and the population at 737,000 [illegible] miles. This is considerably less than one person [illegible] to it will be seen that there [illegible] for more people. With only six persons to the square mile, the population of the [illegible] would be 1,890,620. The soil can support easily sixty to the square mile, a [illegible] population of 40,000,000

The managers of the Union Pacific, the Chicago & North[illegible]ern, the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroads, are holding a consultation in New York in [illegible] to the proposed bridge across the Missouri at or near Omaha. The bridge franchise [illegible] to the Union Pacific Railroad, but the [illegible] cost of the structure ($2,500,000) makes it [illegible] for the company to enlist the aid and [illegible] of the connecting roads from Chicago

The Roseburg [illegible] had information from Act[illegible] Gen[illegible] May, that J. C. McCarty, recently convicted of riot and sentenced to the Penitentiary for [illegible] from Coos county, has been [illegible] the Admission that he shall pay or cause to be paid into the State Treasury the sum of [illegible] dollars, that being the cost of his transportation by the State.

The [illegible] says that a number of leading [illegible] Democrats [illegible] to send J L. Parrish of that place as a delegate to the Chicago Convention. Mr Parrish is one of the oldest, best and most influential citizens of Oregon.

Says the Unionist. The Oregon Herald has the indecency to head a leading article "A [illegible] Liar!" It alludes to a matter of news published correctly by the Oregonian [illegible] hereforth let the editor be known as "Black guard Brown."

Interesting Letter from Dallas

DALLAS Feb 1 1868

EDITOR OREGONIAN

The Democratic Club met here to day At the time the Club was organized, they unfurled an institution, and it seems that constitutional difficulties are beginning to cluster around them It appears that, by some unfortunate oversight a clause crept into their fundamental law to the effect that the Democracy will support the candidates who may be fairly and honorably nominated That is what's the matter with Hannah The faction of which Old Whitey is the head and Ben Harden the tail fearing that this provision may militate against the success of the candidates they have determined to have nominated are anxious to amend the constitution [illegible] There has been a good deal of animated discussion on the subject The result is not definitely known but it is supposed that the amendment will prevail and then Old Ford, Capt Turnbull and others of the party who have an inclination for fairness and honesty, will be driven to support the nominees under the constitution as it was and the party as it was Mr Hayden alluded to the situation in the beginning of his remarks to the Club to day

MR OSBURN

Was called by a unanimous vote of the Club to address that august body His speech was characteristic and eminently suited no doubt to the taste and refinement of those who called him but we are grieved that we cannot give a report of it in the Oregonian on account of the fastidious and perverted tastes of its Abolition readers and really we fear that in this Puritanic age his effort might call forth severe and uncharitable criticisms even if published in the Weiss Miscellany or the La Crosse Democrat

DR JEFFRIES

Laid down the principles of the Democratic party First, If you destroy the doctrine of State sovereignty, you destroy the government, Secondly All the efforts to put down the rebellion were unconstitutional, Thirdly, There shall be no class legislation—that all classes shall have equal rights He argued his thirdly from the position that there are two classes Our erring Southern brethren, and the "Puritanic Abolitionists of the North" Fourthly, If the "Bonds" can't be taxed, they should be put down to about forty cents on the dollar and then be paid off in greenbacks at their face, and then tax the greenbacks, and, Fifthly, If the negroes are allowed to vote in the Presidential election, he was in favor of an appeal to arms!

SEN HAYDEN

was now called He did not feel like speaking and didn't intend to make a speech, nevertheless he hauled off his coat and "sailed in" In relation to the "constitutional amendment," above referred to, he said "It is the duty of all of us to work and co-operate together, zealously, for the success of the Democratic ticket Upon the nominees, Democrats have no right to differ Whenever a man by his acts (recommends himself to the Convention, and) secures a nomination, he is the man to support. We should lay aside all other considerations and come to the polls as one man in support of those who are the nominations"

He then proceeded to "grammar the Constitution" for his audience. He read, "We, the people of the United States" "Now," said he "you all understand grammar and will any grammarian say that this clause gives any authority to the whole people of the United States? It means the States Any grammarian can and will tell you that it means, We, the people of the States united"

He then read "Article VII The ratification of the nine States shall be sufficient for the establishment of this Constitution between the States so ratifying the same"

He then read article X, [illegible] to the Constitution: "The powers not expressly delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people thereof" Omitting the words at the one in Art VII, and interpolating those in italics, in Art X And thus he went on to prove the doctrine of States Rights," he calls it, Dr Jeffries calls it "State sovereignty." After laying down the Constitution as above, he said "South Carolina and all the Southern States say to the North to day 'Let us alone!' And they have a right to say it And all we have to do is to support the Constitution and the laws, and 'let them alone!'" He is evidently trying to make his peace with the office of Jo Lane, and the post Democrats, who, when he was an abolitionist and wanted to be our abolition Governor, he declared he "would thrust into the forts and jails till their legs hung out at the windows, if he had the power"

He then swore a great oath "By all the gods in heaven, earth or hell! if a President is elected by the aid of negro votes, I will resist it!"

As to the national debt, it was a great swindle saddled upon an honest, hard working yeomanry, to the amount of thirty thousand millions! He was in favor of submitting the national debt to the Third Auditor, and let him decide whether it was just, and whether it ought to be paid or not (Immense applause, and cries of "That's my opinion!" "That's right!" and "That's the fair way to settle it!")

He emphatically declared that he would rather live among Digger Indians, than in such a government as these Abolitionists have forced upon us! and he closed with a solemn asseveration, that "Lincoln grossly violated the Constitution when he issued the writ of Habeas Corpus"

Yours, TRULY

Real Estate Speculations.—There are evidences of the beginning of a real estate speculation at San Francisco, which, if not checked may culminate in disaster The sums with which money can be borrowed on city property has induced many to purchase, paying only a part of the purchase money and mortgaging the property for the remainder It appears from Carter's Real Estate Circular, that purchasers went in debt, during 1867, to the amount of $4,226 764 In speaking of the deficit of payments, as compared with the previous year, the Circular says

If the evil increases this year as it did last, the deficit will be nearly double the sum shown, and if capital that is now confined exclusively to loans upon real estate here, is not partially, at least, turned into other and more legitimate channels, by which it will be allowed to aid our farming, mining, manufacturing or railroad interests, we may expect to see the rate of interest fall here to six or eight per cent per annum, and thus a still more inviting premium will be held out to real estate purchasers to buy upon the credit system, and a direct aid given to speculation in and inflation of city property, while the interior will continue to be left to starve for the want of that capital which its legitimate interests so much require, and which we have in a superabundance that is proving positively injurious to us

Change of Venue Law in Washington Territory.—In our notice yesterday of the proceedings of the Washington Territory Legislature, we were made to say, "a new change of venue law was passed, which met the opposition of the judges of the Supreme Court and members of the bar" This is error We wrote approbation and not opposition

The law provides that upon either party making affidavit of prejudice on part of the judge, thereupon the Court should appoint a Commissioner, having the qualifications of a Referee, who shall proceed to hear the proofs of the party making application for change of venue, and report thereon If the Referee reports prejudice on the part of the judge, the Court may order a change of venue to the next nearest District, or order a stay of proceedings in the case until some other judge can be had to hold the court. In case prejudice on the part of the people of the county is alleged, the Court shall proceed at once to hear the proofs and try the alleged prejudice, and may grant or refuse a change of venue at its discretion This is the substance of the law

A Union Club has been organized at Sheridan, Yamhill county. J Lamson is President, Lee Laughlin Vice President and T M Faulkner, Secretary. The Club at its last meeting was addressed by P C Sullivan and Capt Lafollet of Polk county Resolutions were passed endorsing the reconstruction acts and declaring for Gen Grant for President

Berlah has a long article on "Freedom of opinion" It is probably intended as a retort upon the Directory for muzzling him

The Daily Unionist will be issued the first week in March Salem will then have four daily papers

ROADS.—A gentleman, who seems well posted in road matters of this county, informs us that an effort is being made to change the boundaries of the road districts so as to withdraw a portion of the money usually allotted to the Canyon road, from that district to the district in which is located the Alleu or North road up the mountain west of this city. He represents that last year the Allen road received as expenditures of about $2,000—something more than was expended on the Canyon road. The latter, he says, requires more money to keep it in repair than does the other, on account of the stream which turns down the Canyon. The road is the most direct to the Tualatin Plains, but quite half of all the travel by teams to and from the city, and is by odds a more important road than the other mentioned. He objects to the proposed scheme of taking away any part of its district or of the funds usually applied to it, and insists that the public interests will be injured if the commissioners listen to the proposition. It strikes us that his views are correct. He mentioned an evil in the selection of road supervisors—the frequent application of men who have no permanent property interests to be affected by the manner of expending the public road moneys. A petition is often circulated for the appointment of this or that man, to which it is an easy enough matter to get the signatures of unreflecting people, and on this petition, an utterly unfit man, perhaps, is appointed—some man who has an axe to grind, or is willing to be the tool of somebody else who has an axe to grind. If this be so, and we do not doubt it, there should be a radical change in the programme. Only permanent settlers and men who have an abiding interest in the general good, as it may be affected by roads, should have to do with the supervisors, and this without regard to politicians for the appointment of any others.

TIDINGS FROM EAST OF THE MOUNTAINS.—We clip the subjoined items from the Mountaineer of Saturday, the 1st inst: During the first part of the week snow fell to the depth of about six inches in this city.—The sleighing and skating is still in excellent condition, and appears to be enjoyed by everybody except, perhaps, the taxle men.—From all directions we learn that stock of all kinds, excepting horses, are starving and freezing to death. Should the present cold weather continue, and from all appearances it bids fair so to do, we fear that nearly all the live stock in this county will most certainly perish.—Mr. Wm. K. Ish started on Tuesday morning to go to Camp Harney via Canyon City, when after going as far as Fifteen Mile Creek, he returned, having been informed by parties that he met coming this way, that it was impossible to get there on account of the deep snow. Mr. Ish started on Wednesday morning to Boise via Umatilla, to try his luck on that route, but we fear with no better success.—Mr. Charles F. West arrived on Thursday ev. from Camp Watson, having been eight days on the road. He says that the snow in some places is over five feet in depth. On Bridge Creek the snow was one foot deep, and in several other places where heretofore very little or no snow has been known to fall. Col. Baker left Camp Watson with his command, intending to make a raid on a band of Indians supposed to be on the John Day River; but, from the change in the weather since he started, Mr. West thinks he will be compelled to return to Camp Watson, as it will be utterly impossible to do anything under present circumstances.

ARRIVAL FROM FRANCE.—The steamer Alert brought down, yesterday, about 175 tons of freight, mostly flour and wheat. This may be a little above the daily average of arrivals, but not much. Before navigation closed, the wharves were far from being emptied of produce, and since the resumption of steamer trips, they are becoming comfortably crammed again. A gentleman connected with the freighting business remarked yesterday that should the five steamers now immediately above Portland make but one trip each between this and the head of navigation, there would be abundant room at least three steamers; that one would not be able to make scarcely more than a perceptible impression on the stocks now on hand. Full as the markets are, large quantities of produce are being sent forward to this city, with the hope of getting it shipped by the first arrival. Most of the mills of the interior are agaiust work and as teaming is good, the arrivals at way landings on the river, of wheat, are very large. The Salem Record of the 24th says: "The flouring mill is busily at work; and of good flour, with no interruption of its supply of water. The Rumsie Patton was to leave this morning with 750 barrels of flour taken on board at the Salem Mills—the largest shipment yet made. Considerable wheat is coming into the mill from the country, and a large amount is coming down the river, which has been stored above. After this date the shipments of flour will be large."

CIRCUIT COURT—MARQUAM, JUDGE.—Proceedings of Tuesday, Feb. 4th:

Shaw for $2,400 gold coin; lot 2 in block 24, to H. Mc-Craken, for $2,000 gold coin; half of lot 3 in block 74, to W. W. Page, for $1,550 gold coin; half of lot 4 in block 72, to D. In the matter of the estate of Henry Rose, deceased, order authorizing sale of personal property at private sale to Mrs. Rose 27 cows, 1 yoke of oxen and 3 boats.

In the matter of the guardianship of the minor heirs of Henry Rose, deceased, Lewis M. Parrish appointed guardian; bond to issue upon filing bonds.

Wm. A. Fair vs. Wm. Strodger; order entering judgment of date Nov. 7, 1860, and order given plaintiff to issue execution against the property of defendant for the sum of $3232 60 and interest thereon from Nov. 7, 1860, at three per cent per month and for costs.

Adjourned till 10½ a. m. to-day.

OUR RIVER RETURNS.—The people living along the banks of the Columbia, being cut off from their usual means of [illegible] by the [illegible] with this upper country, have been reduced to short bread rations. In some places bread-stuffs were scarce two weeks ago, and, of course, have not [illegible] since. In view of this and other privations [illegible] of St. Helens came up to this city, chartered the little steamer Wasco and yesterday morning loaded her with provisions, intending to take the cargo [illegible] to St. Helens and other points in that vicinity. It is [illegible] that the steamer would have no trouble in getting within about eight miles of St. Helens. The [illegible] will doubtless be remunerative, as the human stomach [illegible] a vacuum, and is willing to pay liberally rather than [illegible].

OUR ASTORIA CORRESPONDENCE.—Mr. Thos. Fraser [illegible] arrived from that place yesterday, and reports the [illegible] as having [illegible] during the week. The [illegible] returns for 1867. All returns [illegible] upon the value of Legal Tenders, and the taxes are payable in that currency. Where the income is in coin, it will be first ascertained, of course, in gold, and then converted into Legal Tender value, at the rate above mentioned. A convenient method of doing this, is to take one-third of the coin income and add it to the principal; the result is the required Legal Tender value. For instance, A. B. has an income of $1800, in coin; one-third of $1800 is $600, which added to the principal makes $2700 in Legal Tenders—the sum to be returned. Only incomes of $1000 and above $1000 in coin, at the rate of five per cent.

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday, while the most of the employees of the Salem Iron Works were gone to dinner, Mr. James Buchanan, the engineer met with a severe accident which will probably prevent him from resuming labor for some time. By some means, probably by slipping on the platform, his left hand was caught between the cog of the pitman and the crank of the driving wheel to which it is attached, and was badly crushed. The flesh of the hand was [illegible] and torn—[illegible] bones broken. Dr. Chapman dressed the wound immediately, since which time we have [illegible] of the condition of the injured man.—Statesman.

STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—The proposed meeting on the 1st of [illegible], of the Board of Managers of the State Agricultural Society, did not take place, on account of the inclemency of the weather, and the difficulty of traveling. Mr. A. J. Dufur, the President of the Society, has therefore appointed the 10th of the Board on Thursday, the 10th of March, at which meeting, the time of holding the next Annual Fair will be fixed, the Premium List will be arranged, and such other business as may come necessary transacted. A full attendance of the Executive Board is requested, as the matters to come before it are of the first importance to the Society.

FIRE IN YAMHILL.—The Record, on the authority of Mr. John F. Miller, makes a different statement from that we have heard, in relation to the losses, in Yamhill, of stock by starvation. It says: "Capt. Jno F. Miller, who has just come over from Yamhill county, reports that the farmers generally are feeding their stock and losing none. The snow lies on the ground so deep that there is no other way for outside feeding." Our reports are quite as authentic as the above, to the effect that the losses are already considerable, and likely to become greater. The reports probably come from entirely different sections of the county.

MELLOW WEATHER.—Yesterday was decidedly the mellowest day we have experienced since the beginning of the current Annus Domini. People were strongly disposed to pull off their jackets and begin the business of a thaw at once. A "thaw" was the general theme. Everybody seemed to have "thaw" on the brain. Seriously, however, though there were some very favorable symptoms, the wind was not exactly in the right quarter, the moon had not yet changed in its malevolent aspects, and the thaw made but slight progress.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT—DEADY, JUSTICE.—Proceedings of Tuesday, Feb. 4th:

In the case of Lamb vs. State et al., exceptions to answer of defendant were filed and the argument set for hearing on Saturday.

In Lamb vs. Davenport, further time was granted the plaintiff to file amended bill.

The court adjourned till Saturday morning, the 8th inst.

RAILROAD ORDINANCE.—Several of the members of the City Council met yesterday at the Auditor's office and discussed the proposed railroad ordinance. We understand that a general understanding was arrived at, as to the provisions of the ordinance and that the committee would report it back to the Council this evening. As well as we are advised, the ordinance has been but little changed since its reference except in some verbal points.

DEATH.—A dispatch from San Francisco, received last evening, by Mr. J. P. Jones, announces the death, in that city, on the 27th, of Typhoid Pneumonia, of Mrs. Isore, wife of Charles Hall, formerly, for a long time, a resident of this city. Mrs. Hall was a daughter of Mr. Wm. Taylor. She leaves, as sincere mourners, a number of relatives in this vicinity, and a husband and child who were with her at San Francisco.

INSTALLATION.—The following officers of Crystal Lodge, No. 10, I. O. G. T., were installed last evening: Geo. W. Vollum, W. C. T.; Frances Hainsruer, W. V. T.; Wm. Dean, W. S.; Walter Duernberry, W. F. S.; Mrs. J. H. Martin, W. T.; Wm. H. Harrison, W. M.; Miss Amanda Hainsruer, W. I. G.; —— Morris, W. O. G.; James Cummings is the P. W. C. T.

Mrs. Vandercook, whose husband is at Fort Klamath, can hear of something to her advantage by calling upon Moore, Ladd & Tilton.

EXPRESS FROM THE DALLES.—Mr. Shepherd, Wells, Fargo & Co's Messenger, arrived last evening from the Dalles, having left there at half past 8 o'clock Monday morning—a very quick trip. He reports the weather as very mild along the Columbia with a wind that promises a break-up. We are indebted to him for a copy of the Mountaineer of Saturday last.

PRODUCE.—Arrived per steamer Alert yesterday, from Oregon City, 3,651 qr sacks flour, 222 bags wheat, 231 sacks feed, 14 sacks dried fruit, 12 cast bed plates, 9 guinea hatens, 5 bxs eggs, 1 pkg mdse.

A Proposition.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Being decidedly in favor of this city issuing her bonds for the purpose of building a railroad and believing it essential to such a consummation, I propose a plan in which we shall neither cheat or be cheated. Let the Common Council authorize the Mayor and Auditor, and make it their duty to issue bonds for five or ten thousand dollars per mile as may be determined, to be given to any company upon the completion of five miles of railroad which shall be properly stocked and in good order, and so on upon completion of every three or five miles till a gross sum, not to exceed three or five hundred thousand shall have been issued. This is plain and straight forward and everybody can understand it. If the City Charter will not admit of this being done, the Legislature meets soon and we can have the charter amended. CITIZEN.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU and IMPROVED ROSE WASH cures secret and delicate diseases in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience and no exposure. It is pleasant in taste and odor, immediate in its action and free from all injurious properties.

DR. C. W. COOL,
DENTIST.
TO THOSE WHO DESIRE FIRST-CLASS DENTAL SERVICES, might do well to give him a call. He is making a NEW AND IMPROVED VULCANITE PLATE. The nature of his improvement consists in lining the entire concave surface with a plate of gold; it makes the plate twice as strong and one-third lighter than the common vulcanite plate. It also prevents the acids of the mouth from roughing the plate, and from turning it black, which is a common occurrence. One half of the common vulcanite plates from Black after using in one short time parts starts where it becomes used for smoking. His new style of plate admits of a very fine finish to the concave or palate surface. He offers in the only place where such work can be had. The improvement is his own invention, for which he has received December 31, 1867, a patent from the United States Patent Office. He has been making this style of work for the last two and a half years, and has specimens of the work which can be seen at his office. This work has given satisfaction in every case.
OFFICE, temporarily at the private parlor of the New Columbian Hotel. dec4-3ptf.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU gives health and vigor to the frame and bloom to the pallid cheek. Debility is accompanied by many alarming symptoms, and if no treatment is submitted to, consumption, insanity, or epilepsy ills ensue.

MARTIN LUTHER once thought he saw the devil in his chamber, and threw an inkstand at his head. Had they had in those days AYER'S PILLS to exercise all the devils that come from a disordered stomach, his laughable fright would not have become a matter of history.

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS should be in the possession of everybody in the mining region. As a preventive of various dangerous diseases to which the gold seeker is liable, it has no superior. While it is as palatable even as a beverage, it is speedy and powerful in its effects upon the system. In all cases of diarrhœa, dysentery and the gratifying severe consequent upon exposure, the Bitters will be found invaluable as a corrective. No man should enter upon the exposed camp life of a miner without having provided with Hostetter's preventive of stomach diseases, nor should any of those now engaged in the occupation, fail to have recourse to the Bitters. Sold by all druggists and dealers everywhere.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.
THE UNIVERSAL REMEDY FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL COMPLAINTS!
At this period there are but few of the human race unacquainted with the merits of the Pain Killer; but while some extol it as a liniment, they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally, while others use it internally with great success, but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally. I'm therefore wish to say to all that it is equally successful whether used internally or externally, and it stands unrivalled by all the great catalogue of Family Medicines, and its sale is universal and unbounded. The demand for it from India and other foreign countries is equal to the demand at home, and it has become known there for all places by its merits.

LMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is pleasant to take and odor, free from all injurious properties, and [illegible] in its action.

A Cause for being Alarmed.—When a Cough has been running for a long time, and you begin to feel pain settling in upon your lungs, attended with tight across the chest, it is high time that you should awake to the danger of your disease, which is fast running to consumption. Now, before it is too late, use ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM, which will cure the disease, and all [illegible] well with you. For sale by the Dealers in Family Medicines generally.

The Earthquake in the Virgin Isles

GRAPHIC DESCRIPTION OF THE GREAT RISE OF TIDAL WAVE—ACTION OF THE EARTHQUAKE—SHOCKS AT ST THOMAS AND ST CROIX—EIGHTY MILES IN SARA ISLAND

The following letter from the New York Herald descriptive of the recent earthquakes at St Thomas, shows what kind of territory the land gamblers are try ng to palm off on the United States

ST THOMAS Nov 27 18

On Sunday the 17th inst between 2 and 3 P M a slight shock was said to have been felt in this city but I think

On Monday, November 18, at about 9 minutes to 3 P M an earthquake was felt on board the flagship Susquehanna I can describe it only as a kind of earth shudder lasting from a minute to a minute and a half The vibrations were distinct and regular with a very slight increase in intensity about the middle of the shock The current seemed to run a little between the north and south points Aneroid barometer 29 82 thermometer 79 degrees the aver ge points at which both instruments had stood for some days previous and since

At a quarter to three P M, a bore was observed advancing with great rapidity toward the harbor. It apparently came on as a tidal wave from the south, which broke into combers during the shoal water line of thirty six fathoms which runs round the southern end of St Thomas at eight miles distant from the shore line The wave was about eight minutes from its first appearance (supposed) at the shoal line until it broke upon Prince Robert's Rock, which extended half way across the harbor There it broke, impart ing a — tion to the water of the unprotected entrance, which came to us as a heavy swell rather with a cap and committed the damage done to the part of the town of St Thomas As the bore struck the shoal line and in a direct line between the harbor and St Croix in the direction the wave ran, was observed under all sail and did not appear to be affected by it, so that I should describe it as a tidal wave starting from some point of the Spanish main, (say Laguyra), and travelling at the rate of 500 miles an hour until the shoal water line at St Thomas and St Croix and broke into the anchorage as a large rapid wave Its height, as it broke on the shoal line, appeared very great (30 feet) but on approaching Prince Rupert's Rocks, comparing it with the height of two vessels, a brig and a bark, but in its crest was not more than feet high, (since by measurement on shoal water, it has been found to be twenty feet high) As the bore advanced, the water in the harbor receded leaving the flagship aground, starboard broadside to seaward, slightly heeled to starboard The first wave lifted her up, the surge on her receding away both anchor stocks, and parted her to the wharves. The brig and bark after swinging the crest of the bore, were whirled completely in the eddies and back set, and were left high and dry on the steep sides of the harbor outside Prince Rupert's Rock

The bark came off with the reflux but the brig was left high and dry above high water mark on the side of the hill. A steam tug, which was going out to the La Plata (intercepted steamer lying in the Asia Bay), on coming in sight of the bore put back with all speed, but was overwhelmed through she had put perhaps two hundred yards between her and the safe waters. A small sloop escaped the brunt of the bore as it broke. The tug was capsized, crew and all A negro boy escaped from this sloop, assisted by a board which he found and was picked up by a boat from the flagship. For three hours after the bore had passed the water in the harbor was troubled with eddies and surges, the ship swaying in changing sets of wind. At half past 6 P M it ceased A light gust of wind accompanied the bore in its flight and died away with it.

At 9 o'clock I went on board the De Soto to assist what injuries she had received. She had been moored between the flag ship and the Liverpool Royal Mail Company's iron wharf. (The flagship was moored in four fathoms of water, center of Prince Rupert's Rock, bearing south) The Liverpool Company's wharf sank into the water before the reflux had fairly set in, and it is more than the reflux had strength to carry it away, or else that the bore rushed before it a body of water which broke the surface. The wharf did not topple over as from the bore, but sank square-ly to the foundations as had given way The De Soto with the reflux drew down, was whirled violently in conjunction from north to south then with the bore, on her heaviest way back and was driven against the debris of the iron wharf and Pier No 1, breaking more than — frames, and finally getting up and her steam and put in requisition to clear her of water — — boat from on board the flagship or De Soto lost one of her boats and — by injury The flag ship had up in the harbor about fifteen men and one — body.

The damage done by the earthquake and bore — to have — vried that done by the hurricane of the 29th ult.; but under the excited condition of people's minds, no reliable details were — ed.

On the morning of November 19th I visited the — Mailer — ship La Plata (the wasiying in the Asia Bay) on coming in sight of the bore — Mc — captain reported that he saw the bore in the distance, when he judged it was — feet in height, that as it came along the — in front of the anchorage broke its force It — the La Plata on the starboard quarter, staving in some of the upper works and carrying her away from her anchors, but she sustained no — damage.

He said that during the earthquake the island of Santa was reported to him as issuing flames and — but when he observed it there was only a — about it, whether of smoke or of dust he — not tell The purser of the steamer said he — plainly see the flames rising from the — The captain called my attention to a fis — ding the island in two, which he assured me was not th before, and as he had been a long time sailing between St Thomas and Rio — he was well acquainted with the landmarks and — the change had been effected I observed that the walls of the fissure looked new and fresh, but there were no volcanic traces visible.

During the evening of the 18th I went on shore and found that the water had penetrated up town, and finally kept above high water mark, flooding the warehouses, destroying property, etc Boots and small vegetables were carried up and landed in the streets; sloops landed intact on the wharves During the two hours and a half that I was above I felt several shocks of an earth — nay, — or eight; most of them were very — but, with scarcely any motion, but accompanied by a — somewhat like the moan that — precedes the typhoon. One shock, — was very distinct, and alarmed the people in the vicinity considerably To the best of my judgment, it ran in undulating waves from about southwest to northeast, beginning with a — which was followed by a few vibrations — It followed by a longer series — re distinct. I noticed that neither the people on shore were more sensitive and their nerves more accurately stretched by their anxiety and experience, or else by some electrical affinity, but the spasm of anticipation — (if it could be so — ticip.), on their part always preceded the very first signs or sounds of a shock. The sky during the day presented its ordinary appearance; the trade wind clouds were hanging — overhead The weather was calm and — This was an incident, as at this time of the year the northeast trade winds prevail with — strongest effect During the heaviest shock on the 18th, the orderly at the cabin door reported the ship's compass in his vicinity as having vibrated, violently, turned completely round and then restored to quiet. During one of the lesser shocks, the navigator observed the compass accurately, and did not observe anything unusual in its motions.

ST THOMAS Nov 27 1867

Shocks are still felt here, but are very mild During the 25th and 26th the barometer went down to 29 67 and 29 74, without any material change in the weather

The injuries done to the town of St Thomas by the earthquakes and bore are very extensive Many buildings have been dilapidated and all the stone built houses are more or less scattered and rose — ers The storehouses along the bore and — — ndise to the value of millions, I am told, have been destroyed

San Francisco Established in 1854

For the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gleet Stricture Syphilis all the Secret Seminal Weaknesses Impotence etc Skin Diseases (Leprosy) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands there are who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of Mercurial poisoning Rheumatism Scrofula and their broken down victims, who, for the paltry consideration of a few dollars, have been put through a course of mercury by some notorious quack, and then left to their fate, with the assurance that the disease is only temporarily driven in, and will return to torture the unfortunate victim in a more aggravated form Such cases I warrant to cure without the use of mercury or any injurious drugs It is my intent to those who are afflicted to get them who are in search of the best medical skill in the country, and who are disgusted with the treatment they have received at the hands of ignorant pretenders, and who have been reduced to poverty by paying enormous fees to self-styled physicians, who, after having got their money, have left them to suffer worse than before Be ill advised, but be careful and make sure that you are not humbugged by some notorious quack, who will take your money and then leave you to suffer worse than before Be careful to call on the right physician, one who has made a life study of your disease, and who will cure you in the shortest time and on the most reasonable terms Many persons have been ruined for life by the use of Mercury, given by inexperienced physicians, when a few bottles of my Blood Purifier would have saved them from the grave Many are troubled with Nocturnal Emissions, Seminal Weakness, Lost Manhood, Impotency, and the many symptoms arising therefrom, such as Nervousness, Aversion to Society, Timidity, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Dizziness, Wakefulness, Lassitude, Pain in the Back, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Eruptions on the Face, Pimples on the Face, Blotches, Boils, Ringworms, Scurvy, Mercurial Rheumatism, Mercurial Consumption, Stricture, Gleet, Syphilis in all its stages, Secondary Symptoms, Blood Poisoning, Sore Throat, Mouth and Tongue, Ulcerations of the Throat, Nose and Skin, Old Sores, Ulcers, Tumors, Pimples on the Face, Diseases of the Head, Bones, Joints and Limbs, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, all of which this Purifier will cure in a short time

HIRAM SMITH'S Ophthalmic Panacea!

IN BRINGING THE ABOVE NAMED NEW REMEDY to the notice of the public the proprietor begs to state a few facts in relation to it as follows

It originated in Florida where the best of Medicine is so thoroughly taught and practised but owing to the poverty of its discoverer its wonderful properties were not known beyond the limited circle of his acquaintance to which he confined himself almost by infallible in cases of the most distressing character

His immigration to this country bringing his discovery with him, but seems to have been indifferent to the property of giving it general and universal circulation and as previously in his native country seemed only desirous of using it among his friends and neighbors

The present proprietor was one of these neighbors, and for many years was a witness to its wonderful efficacy and after ineffectual efforts to persuade the inventor to more widely disseminate the knowledge of its virtues finally became himself the possessor of the secret of its preparation

And now while he does not deny that he hopes and expects to make money by its sale he must yet let his claim to a desire to benefit his fellows by preventing to them a remedy which does and will cure where medical science and all experience have failed

He wishes to be understood that it will cure all diseases of the eye whether of recent or long standing, but its greatest power is exhibited when it is applied to old Chronic Cases of long standing which have resisted every other attempt to cure them and which have been given up as hopeless and pronounced incurable

He asks those afflicted in this way to give it a trial and so confident is he of its success that he instructs all his agents TO REFUND THE MONEY IF IT FAILS TO CURE

Those within the past year cured cases of GRANULATED LIDS INFLAMMATION &c of FIVE NINE FIFTEEN and SEVENTEEN YEARS STANDING evidences of which fact is furnished in the testimony of the following persons to whom I am known in the neighborhood of Harrisburg Linn county

ALEXANDER L WALKER was cured of inflamed eyes of nine years standing Had been treated by eminent physicians without effect

Mrs MONTGOMERY of Harrisburg had inflamed eyes for over two years For one year they were so bad that she could not work Was finally completely cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea

E H MOORE of the firm of Moore Garst & Baker of Harrisburg had granulated lids for six years

NATHANIEL BELL of Clackamas county, had inflamed eyes a bad case—for over fifteen years

ROBERT RAMPEY and W D PORTER of Harrisburg JOHN M HOLLOWAY of Linn County O T WALD of Lane County were all afflicted more or less severely with diseased eyes, and were cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea

All the above named persons have given lengthy testimonials to the facts as above stated which may be seen at the proprietor's office in Harrisburg
